

English Unit – Survivors Week 2

Monday	Read through the text: The woman who sailed into a hurricane.	Use the resource sheet for Monday to answer the comprehension questions based on the text.
Tuesday	Reread last week's text: The Girl Who Fell From The Sky.	This week, we are going to be writing a survival guide for a jungle explorer. Read through the resource sheet 'Scuba Diving'. Note down ways in which a jungle survival guide may be similar to this. Use the planning resource sheet for Tuesday and fill in notes on each section for a jungle survival guide. Remember to use your knowledge of Julianne's survival tricks (from the text) to inform this.
Wednesday	Look through the 'Scuba Diving' resource sheet and highlight all of the sentence openers, conjunctions and words/phrases that could be used in your writing this week.	On the 'Scuba Diving' text, highlight the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Bullet points Imperative verbs (bossy verbs to begin instructions) First person pronouns. Today you are going to write your own introduction to your Jungle Survival Guide. Read through the scuba diving introduction on the Wednesday resource sheet. How could this be adapted for a Jungle Survival guide? Using the sentence starters below (on the sheet), write your own introduction by improving and expanding ideas shown.
Thursday	Writing Session: Write a survival guide for jungle explorers! Use your plan and your draft introduction to support you, along with the words, phrases, conjunctions and sentence openers that you gathered in Wednesday's lesson. Once you have finished, re-read Julianne's trek through the jungle. How many of the issues she encountered have you addressed in your guide? If any are missing, edit and improve your writing to include these.
Friday	Go on to your Century account and access the SPAG course for Years 5 and 6, working through the tasks.
